Knights' Knotes

Volume 13 Issue 2

From Our Worthy Supreme Knight

Brother Knights:

We are all aware of the troubling events that are occurring today, including attacks on statues of historical figures such as Abraham Lincoln, Frederick Douglass and our Order's namesake, Christopher Columbus. Statues of saints have also been vandalized, including those honoring St. Junípero Serra, St. Louis and even the Blessed Virgin Mary, and houses of worship and other religious symbols have been attacked. These are not merely attacks on statues and history. They are increasingly attacks on Catholics and people of faith.

In the late 19th century, the Knights of Columbus took its name at a time of intense anti-Catholicism. Our founding members wanted to show that Catholics played an essential role in the exploration and development of America since its earliest days, and that a Catholic could be both a good citizen and a good Catholic.

However, anti-Catholicism persisted. In the 1920s, the Ku Klux Klan tried to stop Columbus Day celebrations and opposed Columbus statues simply because Columbus was a Catholic. We opposed the KKK then and have continued to stand up against bigotry directed at Catholics and others.

We stood up against the persecution of Catholics in Mexico in the 1920s, spoke out for the Jews of Germany in the 1930s and worked for religious freedom behind the Iron Curtain during the Cold War. Today, we are rebuilding Christian communities in the Middle East that were targeted for genocide. Each of us can be proud of our history of standing up for the most vulnerable among us.

While our faith calls us to be respectful of different perspectives, acts of vandalism are crimes against all who cherish democracy and mutual respect. The Knights of Columbus remains firm in its condemnation of all forms of racism and violence, including political violence. With churches, statues, and religious symbols subject to vandalism and attack, we call upon elected officials and leaders at every level to defend the religious freedom of all.

Congratulations Tony Florio - Knight of the month, June 2020

From Our Worthy Grand Knight

Welcome to August Brothers!

The Catholic Church dedicates the month of August to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The Immaculate Heart is often venerated together with the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and with good reason. Just as the Sacred Heart represents Christ's love for mankind, the Immaculate Heart represents the desire of the Blessed Virgin to bring all people to her Son. Now more than ever, with the COVID epidemic, civil unrest and on-going insults against the Catholic Church, we look to the Blessed Virgin to guide and help us defend our principles. Through the following prayer, which help to deepen our devotion to her Immaculate Heart, we can join the Mother of God in drawing closer to Christ.

In Honor of the Immaculate Heart -

O heart of Mary, mother of God, and our mother; heart most worthy of love, in which the adorable Trinity is ever well-pleased, worthy of the veneration and love of all the angels and of all men; heart most like to the Heart of Jesus, of which thou art the perfect image; heart, full of goodness, ever compassionate toward our miseries; deign to melt our icy hearts and grant that they may be wholly changed into the likeness of the Heart of Jesus, our divine Savior. Pour into them the love of thy virtues, enkindle in them that divine fire with which thou thyself dost ever burn. In thee let Holy Church find a safe shelter; protect her and be her dearest refuge, her tower of strength, impregnable against every assault of her enemies. Be thou the way which leads to Jesus, and the channel, through which we receive all the graces needful for our salvation. Be our refuge in time of trouble, our solace in the midst of trial, our strength against temptation, our haven in persecution, our present help in every danger and especially at the hour of death, when all hell shall let loose against us its legions to snatch away our souls, at that dread moment, that hour so full of fear, whereon our eternity depends. Ah, then most tender virgin, make us to feel the sweetness of thy motherly heart, and the might of thine intercession with Jesus, and open to us a safe refuge in that very fountain of mercy, whence we may come to praise Him with thee in paradise, world without end. Amen.

Vivat Jesus!

Chris

In A Word...

Where is the Patriotism?

I am constantly amazed by the lack of patriotism (the love for or devotion to one's country) being reported by the main-stream media. Equally troubling is the preponderance of socialistic rituals being thrust upon America's youth. It seems our republic is being undermined from within by the liberal-leaning institutions known as colleges and universities.

Undisputed evidence clearly demonstrates that socialism is morally wrong and economically disastrous for every country who follows that political path. The liberties that America enjoys are in jeopardy and too many of our people believe that it's the desirable platform on which our nation will prosper.

God gave us this wonderful country establish by men and women who sought freedom from the shackles of tyranny and oppression. God gave us courageous and thoughtful men who fought to free us from the dictates of a foreign power. These men risked their lives and their fortunes to sign a Declaration of Independence. They established "one nation under God."

On May 17, 1846, the Catholic bishops of the United States proclaimed Mary, under her title of the Immaculate Conception as the patroness of our wonderful country.

In our war for Independence, our Civil War, both World Wars, the Korean War and the one fought in Vietnam, soldiers and sailors of America fought and died to help preserve the freedoms we so richly enjoy.

How then so some people in our country discount and ignore these sacrifices by "taking a knee" during the playing of the National Anthem. They have a right to do so, guaranteed by the very principles they protest.

I believe part of the reason is that our culture has evolved from a "we can do this" society to a "it's all about me" society that shares no appreciation for sacrifice or history.

Some of us, and the number is declining, remember the sacrifices families faced during WWII via rationing. Our descendants either don't remember our tales from those days – or don't care. Too often their attitude is likely to be unsympathetic. They don't know what it is to make sacrifices because of the victories of the past generations have made their lives complacent-filled.

The good news is we still have young men and women who understand the nemesis wrought by ignoring the past. These are the true patriots of the twenty-first century. These are the ones who do the unappreciated, but necessary jobs: militarily defending our nation, the front-line first responders, and the medical professionals, among others.

If we could only encourage like-minded men and women to serve in Congress, adopt laws that are truly for the common good and embrace term limits. Many believe these men and women would be the ultimate patriots.

In the meantime, let us continue to pray that God will not permit a country dedicated to His Mother succumb to the leftist social attitudes that are attempting to take hold in our America.

Thirty-One-Year Tenure Ends Amid Coronavirus Shutdown

Sir Knight Avoids Low Level Brags to Highlight Life Adventures

After a great deal of thoughtful prayer, I have decided the time has arrived to retire as an active member of the Knights of Columbus.

It has been my pleasure to be a Charter Member of Council 10062. And, I am proud of my history of service to that Council, serving as Grand Knight and a host of other officer positions. I am content in knowing my leadership role as Chairman in a multitude of projects has helped set the standard for future leaders.

Highlights in Assembly 14 include two terms as Faithful Navigator, chaired nine annual Blue Masses, oversaw the installation of the flag pole in the courtyard, and served as Color Corps Commander for eight years.

During these years, I happily served on Father Sigman's and Father Hooman's Pastoral Councils. For most those same years, I continued my ministries as an Extraordinary Minister of the Holy Eucharist and as a Lector which began in Kentucky in 1972, and followed me to Arizona, via Ohio.

Everything that I was about to write would sound like I'm bragging, and since I did kiss Ireland's famous Blarney Stone, and been "sent forth with the Gift of Eloquence," it wouldn't be bragging. It's simply reporting the facts.

Then, I realized hitting the highlights of an extraordinary career that permitted me to meet and interact with some widely-known personalities would be unfair. For example, it would take pages to write about how I appeared with Tom Dressen in the opening act of a Frank Sinatra Concert.

Or, how I was selected to be a paid actor in a golf commercial.

Or my extraordinary ties to baseball, including throwing out the ceremonial first pitch in a major-league ball park. And, why major league baseball is being ruined by front-office executives who have no appreciation for the game's history or heritage.

So, since space is limited, I guess these and dozens of other stories will remain untold.

While I'm curtailing my activities as a Knight, I plan to continue my avocation as a "professional" writer. One manuscript has already been accepted by Austin Maccauley Publishers in New York. Another is going through an extensive editing and proofing process before being submitted.

I have a lot of incomparable memories to call upon for potential manuscripts. Many of them portray the unique life-style of a Kentucky-born Irishman, with whom God saw fit to share His wonders in so many magnificent ways.

Until we meet mano-a-mano, may God continue to bless you and yours. And, as Lawrence Welk used to say, "Keep a song in your heart." In the words of Father Rey, "Be happy."

Vivat Jesus!

When you are unable to receive Holy Communion, you can make an Act of Spiritual Communion. To do so express your faith in Christ and in His Presence in the Eucharist, and ask Him to unite Himself with you. The basic elements of an Act of Spiritual Communion are an Act of Faith, an Act of Love, a desire to receive Christ, and an invitation to Him to come into your heart.

The following text presents a popular form of an Act of Spiritual Communion written by St. Alphonsus de Liguori. Simply face the Tabernacle if you are in a Church or Chapel or, if at home, face the direction of the closest Church.

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Don't Miss Out Be part of the Annual Golf Tournament

Our Council's 29th Annual Joe Hasulak Golf Tournament will be held on Saturday, September 26 at Foothills Golf Club. Over the years we have raised more than $200,000 for local organizations and charities. Your help and participation is needed:

Finding Sponsors. We would like to have at least two $100 Sponsors for each hole

Recruiting Golfers – have them mark their calendars now and plan to play

Asking Merchants for donation of Raffle Prizes and Silent Auction Items

Tournament Oversight – non-golfers will be needed on Sept 26th to help with registration, manage games such as longest putt, raffle drawing and prize distribution

Recently, another council's tournament had more than 144 golfers and netted more than $10,000. There were 3 or more $100 Sponsors for each of 18 holes and several $500 sponsors. Let's meet the challenge and raise as much or more money for the worthy charities and causes that our council supports. (BTW – Rob Abeln's 4-some won this tournament – ask Rob about sharing some of this fabulous winnings with the Council).

The Destruction of the Temple and Signs of the End Times - Matthew 24

24 Jesus left the temple and was walking away when his disciples came up to him to call his attention to its buildings. ² "Do you see all these things?" he asked. "Truly I tell you, not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down."

³ As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately. "Tell us," they said, "when will this happen, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"

⁴ Jesus answered: "Watch out that no one deceives you. ⁵ For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am the Messiah,' and will deceive many. ⁶ You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. ⁷ Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. ⁸ All these are the beginning of birth pains.

⁹ "Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me. ¹⁰ At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, ¹¹ and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people. ¹² Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, ¹³ but the one who stands firm to the end will be saved. ¹⁴ And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

¹⁵ "So when you see standing in the holy place 'the abomination that causes desolation,' ^[a] spoken of through the prophet Daniel—let the reader understand—¹⁶ then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. ¹⁷ Let no one on the housetop go down to take anything out of the house. ¹⁸ Let no one in the field go back to get their cloak. ¹⁹ How dreadful it will be in those days for pregnant women and nursing mothers! ²⁰ Pray that your flight will not take place in winter or on the Sabbath. ²¹ For then there will be great distress, unequalled from the beginning of the world until now—and never to be equaled again.

²² "If those days had not been cut short, no one would survive, but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened. ²³ At that time if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Messiah!' or, 'There he is!' do not believe it. ²⁴ For false messiahs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect. ²⁵ See, I have told you ahead of time.

²⁶ "So if anyone tells you, 'There he is, out in the wilderness,' do not go out; or, 'Here he is, in the inner rooms,' do not believe it. ²⁷ For as lightning that comes from the east is visible even in the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ²⁸ Wherever there is a carcass, there the vultures will gather.

²⁹ "Immediately after the distress of those days

"the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light;
the stars will fall from the sky,
and the heavenly bodies will be shaken."^[b]

³⁰ "Then will appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven. And then all the peoples of the earth ^[c] will mourn when they see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory. ^[d] ³¹ And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

³² "Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. ³³ Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it ^[e] is near, right at the door. ³⁴ Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. ³⁵ Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

³⁶ "But about that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son,^[1] but only the Father. ³⁷ As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. ³⁸ For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; ³⁹ and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. ⁴⁰ Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left. ⁴¹ Two women will be grinding with a hand mill; one will be taken and the other left.

⁴² "Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come. ⁴³ But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into. ⁴⁴ So you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.

⁴⁵ "Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master has put in charge of the servants in his household to give them their food at the proper time? ⁴⁶ It will be good for that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns. ⁴⁷ Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions. ⁴⁸ But suppose that servant is wicked and says to himself, 'My master is staying away a long time,' ⁴⁹ and he then begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards. ⁵⁰ The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of. ⁵¹ He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Pray The Rosary...

Closing Prayer

O God, whose only-begotten Son by his life, death and Resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant, we beseech thee, that by meditating upon these mysteries of the most holy rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
