Annual Golf Tournament Saturday, September 26

Yes, it's that time again! We're just weeks away from our 29th Annual Joe Hasulak Memorial Golf Tournament and there's still plenty of work to be done and plans to see through.

We can always use more sponsorships, prizes, volunteers and...GOLFERS! If you have prizes for our raffle, please call tournament chairman Mike Moore at 480-360-5956.

If you would like to golf or be a sponsor (or both) please come to the Thursday meeting to register. Forms can also be found on pages 5, 6 and 7 of this newsletter. If you would like to volunteer at the event, please let Mike Moore know and you will be contacted with further information. While unexpected volunteers who show up at the day of the event will not be turned away, planning and preparation will help the event go smoother.

If you are selling sponsorships, be sure to let the sponsor know that the proceeds from the dollars raised will benefit various recognized local charitable organizations. Sponsorships could also be tax deductible and sponsors should consult their tax advisor for more information. Knights of Columbus Council 10062 (K of C Charities 10062) is a 501 (c) 3 non-profit organization. For details on this event, contact Mike Moore or come to our Council meeting on Thursday.

Congratulations Matt Henry - Knight of the month, July 2020

From Our Worthy Grand Knight

The Catholic Church traditionally has dedicated the month of September to Our Lady of Sorrows or Dolars. The word dolors come from the Latin, and simply means "sorrows"; and filial (also from the Latin) means "of a son or daughter." We as Christians, approach Our Lady of Sorrows with the confidence that we would approach our own mother. We remember the suffering of Mary as she stood at the foot of the Cross and witnessed the torture and death of her Son. Through our prayers, we can unite ourselves to Mary in her sorrow, in the hope that we will one day also share her joy in the triumph of her Son.

Considering the current illness, civil unrest and attacks against our Catholic faith happening in our country, how appropriate that we look to Our Lady of Sorrows to come to our aid and intercede for us. We pray to the most Holy Trinity, to put the United States of America into the hands of Mary Immaculate in order that she may present the country to you.

Prayer for our Nation:

God our Father, Giver of life, we entrust the United States of America to Your loving care. You are the rock on which this nation was founded. You alone are the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Reclaim this land for Your glory and dwell among Your people.

Send Your Spirit to touch the hearts of our nation's leaders. Open their minds to the great worth of human life and the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Remind Your people that true happiness is rooted in seeking and doing Your will.

Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, Patroness of our land, grant us the courage to reject the "culture of death." Lead us into a new millennium of life. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Vivat Jesus!

Chris

Safe Environment RENEWAL TRAINING

Annual Online Training:
"Renewing Our Commitment"

The Diocese of Phoenix is committed to protecting all children and youth by offering, at all Diocesan parishes, several abuse prevention educational sessions. The Diocesan Policy and Procedure for the Protection of Minors requires all clergy, employees, volunteers that directly serve minors, and minors to attend training on an annual basis. All other volunteers in the parish must attend Safe Environment training every other year. In Catholic education grades Pre-k through high school, every student every year participates in a Safe Environment program.

In the Diocese of Phoenix all adult volunteers must complete Called to Protect for Ministries as a foundation course for Safe Environment. Called to Protect for Ministries is a 3 hour program which will teach steps that can be taken to prevent child sexual abuse and as a component of the training everyone is required to complete a volunteer application and Code of Ethics.

A 45 minute renewal Training is offered for all subsequent years. This training is offered through in-class sessions at the parish or through computer "online" training.

Go to phoenix.cmgconnect.org/ to learn more about the Diocese of Phoenix Safe Environment Training, to register for a training class, or to complete the online training.

Observations from my "front porch"

===== By Jim McGrath.

Permit me to begin by expressing my condolences to the families of Brother Knights Len Meger, Joe Jakubicek, Bob Muller, and Sir Knight Nick Lozzi. Also, for Concordia Bercasio, the mother of Father Rafael. May God grant them eternal rest; may God's perpetual light shine upon them.

Congratulations to Victoria Jehle and Heather Kwapiszeski. They are the 2020 winners of our Sal Scordato Scholarship Awards and outstanding achievers. We wish them much success in all future endeavors!

Recently two characters were relaxing over a beer. One said to the other, "Do Fairy Tales always begin with 'Once upon a time?'" The other character said in reply, "No, many of them begin, 'If I'm elected, I promise...'"

I am actively encouraging everyone to make a Christian effort to vote for the right candidates for the right reasons. Our country needs mature, and perhaps, cutting-edge leadership. Our Republic seems to be leaning toward Socialism. We need to do our part to upright her before it is too late. Is that too much to ask - of a country dedicated to our Blessed Mother - under her title of the Immaculate Conception? I think not!

When did it become acceptable to break the law in the name of constitutional rights? Peaceful demonstrations are one thing, the willful destruction of property, whether private or public, in the name of anything or anyone is against the law. We must condemn acts of anarchy in all its ugly forms.

Athletes who take the knee during the playing of the National Anthem are first-class hypocrites. If these over-paid jocks have an issue with something, why aren't they using their celebrity to bring about change – off the playing field?

The recent photo of MLB players taking the knee during the National Anthem puts them in the same pigsty as NFL players who do the same. Too many members of my family, including myself, served in this nation's military to allow this practice to go unchallenged. Too many men and women have made the ultimate sacrifice in service to our Republic to condone this unpatriotic behavior. We will not purchase tickets or memorabilia of those who disrespect our country, its flag, and its anthem. Boycotting these games and their overpriced t-shirts will send a strong message. Nothing speaks louder to jocks than U.S. currency.

Do Black Lives Matter? If one believes God is the author of life and creator of all things, and God makes no mistakes, the answer has to be resounding YES! But -- Recently, on an ESPN telecast of a WNBA game, the broadcasters read a fund-raising promo in support of black women killed by Law Enforcement officers. The promo didn't say "by white Law Enforcement officers," but the implication was obvious. That is such a crock of you-know-what. There are more black women abused and killed by black men (husbands, boyfriends, and casual acquaintances) than Law Enforcement officers of every color combined. Where are the outrages and the marches and the protests and the fund-raiser over black men killing black women? Are black men killing black women acceptable, or have I missed something?

Last month's articles have brought the most response yet from anything I've ever written. To all who wished me well in my "retirement," thank you! But--- I'm not going anywhere, just cutting back. My service to the Council (and parish) is "on call." I'll do the best I can to help in any way I can, as long as it is not too physical.

As for my take on patriotism, that received unexpected positive reaction, too. Thank you! On the subject of patriotism, will someone healthy and capable, please display the flags in the proper order in church? The correct protocol is: from left to right as viewed by spectators, the national or U.S. flag, the state flag, and then any other organization flag. In our instance, that is the papal flag. Thank you!

May God continue to bless our great nation and all who serve it honorably!

Following is the prepared text from Bishop Olmsted's homily for the Consecration of the New Altar at Nazareth House Seminary

August 25, 2020

For thousands of years, people of faith have erected altars where they could worship God and find healing and courage in His Name:

- Abraham constructed an altar near Shechem and another near Hebron (Cf. Genesis 12:7-8; 13:18).
- Moses built an altar to commune with God;
- King David erected an altar to ward off a plague (Cf. II Kings 24:25); and the Maccabees made a new altar to replace the one destroyed by their enemies. Our First Reading from the Book of Maccabees tells us that, when the altar was completed (1 Macc 4:56), "All the people prostrated themselves and adored and praised Heaven..."

May this beautiful chapel and altar be a place where each of us and those coming after us will worship with similar humility, adoration and love of Jesus.

An Altar stands at the focal point of a chapel, as a fountain of grace for a community, as a sign of God's presence and even more as the place of (Cf. 1 Cor 10:16f), "participation in the Body and Blood of Christ." Around this Altar of the Lord, He will speak words that you and I need to hear to live as His disciples and to love one another as brothers. For example, Jesus says (Mt 5:23f) , "If you bring your gift to the altar, and there recall that your brother has anything against you, leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

In the Parable about the ten virgins—5 wise and 5 foolish, Jesus tells us that, at midnight, there was a cry (Mt 25:6), "Behold, the Bridegroom is here. Come out to welcome Him." May these words resound in every heart that gathers around this altar for Mass and in every heart that comes here to pray—at midnight or in the Morning or Evening. Jesus is the Bridegroom of the Church, the Bridegroom of every soul; at every hour of the day or night, He is truly here! When you walk into this chapel for Mass, then, or for adoration or Lauds or Vespers, may you have a keen sense of expectancy, remembering that your thirst for Jesus is nothing compared to His thirst for you. Like a child, Jesus is standing on tiptoe waiting to greet you.

When you and I gather at an Altar for the Eucharist, we encounter the same love of Jesus that the Virgin Mary welcomed into her body at Nazareth and that she brought to the light of day in Bethlehem, and that she courageously supported as He suffered and died to redeem us at Calvary.

The love of Christ explains why, at the beginning of every Mass, and at the closing, too, the priest kisses the Altar. Such touching reverence is a reminder that the Altar is where God meets us in our deepest need. The Altar proclaims in stone the words of the Psalmist: "The Lord is my rock and my salvation; of whom should I be afraid?"

It is easy to see why, in every Catholic Church, the center of attention is not the choir, not the priest or congregation but the Altar of Sacrifice. We need consecrated Altars because we need spiritual cardiology; our hearts need conversion from sin and freedom from the lies of the Evil One. Without God's grace, we are not able to change our own hearts or to change the hearts of others; but present here is the Holy One whose Sacred Heart can remove hearts of stone and replace them with hearts of flesh. That is what Jesus was doing on Calvary. That is what He does in every Confessional and at every Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

At an Altar, Christ gives peace that the world cannot give. Here as well, Jesus destroys a false peace which the world entices us to buy at the cost of our integrity and even the loss of our souls. Keep in mind St. Paul's words to the Corinthians (1 Cor 10:21), "You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and of the table of demons."

The consecration of an Altar is no ordinary event. It makes a clear statement to the world that we believe in God, that we want to worship His Holy Name, and that we will never place strange gods before Him.

What takes place on an Altar impacts what happens at home and at school, what occurs in our room and what we do in the public square. Here, we become participants in the Body of Christ; we "bow down in worship" [and] "kneel before the Lord who made us."

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas, We fly to you today as your beloved children.

We ask you to intercede for us with your Son, as you did at the wedding in Cana.

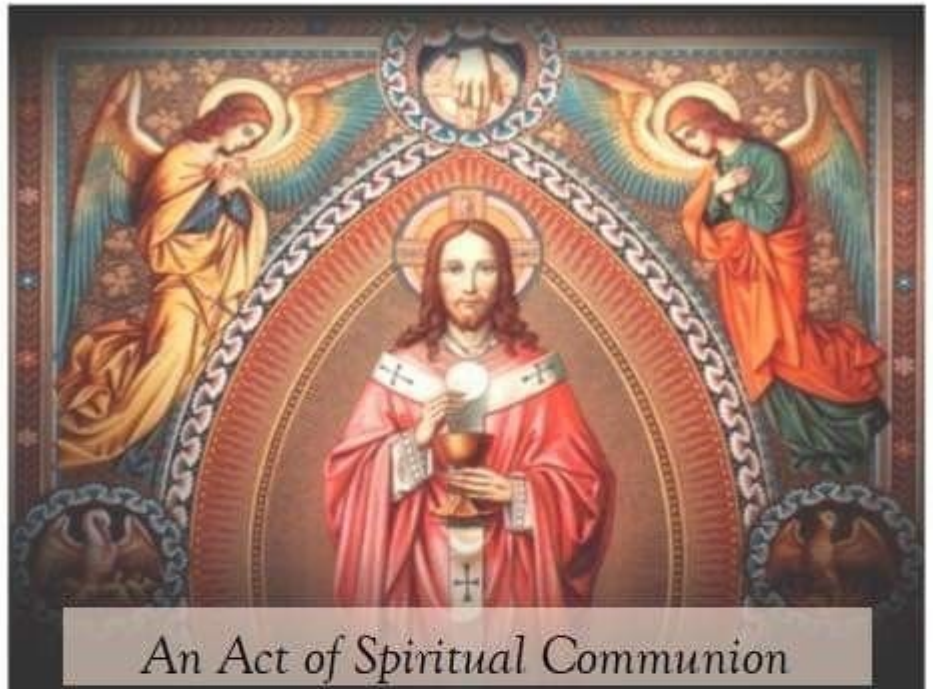

Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation and world, and for all our families and loved ones, the protection of your holy angels, that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance. Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind. Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate Mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy.

Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms, help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus. Amen.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

When you are unable to receive Holy Communion, you can make an Act of Spiritual Communion. To do so express your faith in Christ and in His Presence in the Eucharist, and ask Him to unite Himself with you. The basic elements of an Act of Spiritual Communion are an Act of Faith, an Act of Love, a desire to receive Christ, and an invitation to Him to come into your heart.

The following text presents a popular form of an Act of Spiritual Communion written by St. Alphonsus de Liguori. Simply face the Tabernacle if you are in a Church or Chapel or, if at home, face the direction of the closest Church.

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Asking Merchants for donation of Raffle Prizes and Silent Auction Items

Tournament Oversight – non-golfers will be needed on Sept 26th to help with registration, manage games such as longest putt, raffle drawing and prize distribution

Recently, another council's tournament had more than 144 golfers and netted more than $10,000. There were 3 or more $100 Sponsors for each of 18 holes and several $500 sponsors. Join Bishop Olmsted in Praying a 54-Day Rosary Novena for Our Nation August 30 - October 22

Bishop Olmsted invites all Catholics in the Diocese of Phoenix and throughout the nation to pray together a "Totus Tuus" 54-Day Rosary Novena, beginning on August 30, the memorial of St. Jeanne Jugan, foundress of the Little Sisters of the Poor, and ending on October 22, the feast of St. John Paul II.

How to pray the Novena:

As a family, or as an individual, simply pray these intentions before praying the daily Rosary. The Rosary is prayed every day of the Novena.

Please pray for the following intentions:

1. For the conversion and spiritual protection of our nation, currently experiencing a calamity of sin, division, and vitriol.
2. For authentic leadership, secular and in the Church, rooted in true virtue.
3. For the political parties of our nation to be led by the common good, and to agree on the fundamentals of any nation with a future: protection of human life at all stages, recognition of the dignity of every human person precisely because he or she is made in the image of God, upholding of marriage as the fundamental building block of society, and protection of free speech, freedom of religion, and all other attendant freedoms which help build a virtuous and generous citizenry.
4. For the rejection of all forms of collectivism (CCC 1885), whether Marxist or born of another false ideology, and the cultivation of true patriotism, based on love for what is best in our country, solidarity with those in need and subsidiarity for those smaller stations of governance such as the family.

5. For the strengthening of all families, in particular that Catholic families live more deeply their call to be the "domestic church".
6. For the virtues of mercy and forgiveness to be demonstrated by our leaders and especially those who pray the Our Father.
7. For an end to unjust discrimination and the healing of racial divisions and all other divisiveness unworthy of a sovereign nation.
8. For the vulnerable among us, especially pre-born children, elderly, immigrants, unemployed and the poor.
9. For the restoration of one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice

Pray The Rosary...

Closing Prayer

O God, whose only-begotten Son by his life, death and Resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant, we beseech thee, that by meditating upon these mysteries of the most holy rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
