LAST CALL FOR GOLF! SEE PAGE 2!

From Our Worthy Grand Knight...

While attending the August fellowship breakfast, several topics were presented which helped to further deepen my faith. I shared a prayer that I received while attending a catholic conference held in South Dakota, The prayer brought back memories of that conference and some of what I had learned there. Here is the prayer:

Come Lord Jesus, purify this food. Let it lead to strength, to Apostolate and to take the right next step at all times, in all places and in all circumstances.

Amen

Catholics worldwide are being persecuted This prayer calls for us to have the Grace to navigate through the many temptations and snares of the devil.

Charley Lanzillotta shared with me how he stays up on current news that Catholic's face. The news comes in an email with links enabling you to pick and choose what subject you wish to look deeper into. It is called the "loop". Perhaps some of us already subscribe. This is a free service and does not send you endless amounts of emails. Here is a link theloop@catholicvote.org It has been called the great promise of Jesus, Our Lord to St. Margaret Mary. The grace of final repentance: "They will not die in my displeasure, nor without receiving the sacraments; and my Heart will be their secure refuge in that last hour". Devotion to honor his Sacred Heart. Is something I am willing to do and would like to invite you all to join with me in this devotion starting October 6th at the 8:15 morning Mass (please be in the state of grace)

How to complete the First Friday's Devotion:

1. Receive Holy Communion on each First Friday.
 2. The nine Fridays must be consecutive.
- They must be made in honor and in reparation to His Sacred Heart.

Promises of the Sacred Heart to St. Margaret Mary for Those Who Honor His Sacred Heart

1. I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life.
2. I will give peace in their families.
3. I will console them in all their troubles.
4. I will be their refuge in life and especially in death.
5. I will abundantly bless all their undertakings.
6. Sinners shall find in my Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy.
7. Tepid souls shall become fervent.
8. Fervent souls shall rise speedily to great perfection.
9. I will bless those places wherein the image of my Sacred Heart shall be exposed and venerated.
10. I will give to priests the power to touch the most hardened hearts.
11. Persons who propagate this devotion shall have their names eternally written in my Heart.

In the excess of the mercy of my heart, I promise you that my all powerful love will grant to all those who will receive Communion on the First Fridays, for nine consecutive months, the grace of final repentance: they will not die in my displeasure, nor without receiving the sacraments; and my Heart will be their secure refuge in that last hour.

“[I]t means a loyal willingness to say that black is white when Party discipline demands this. But it means also the ability to believe that black is white, and more, to know that black is white, and to forget that one has ever believed the contrary.” - George Orwell 1984

Can any true Christian deny Christ. The Roman governor Gaius Plinius Secundus did not believe so. Pliny in a letter to the Emperor Trajan observed that he would release those who were brought before him but denied they were Christians by making them invoke the Roman gods and “revile[...] the name of Christ: none of which things, I understand, any genuine Christian can be induced to do.” But do we, not actively maybe but passively, insult Christ and criticize His teaching? Have, as St. Jude wrote, “Godless men... found their way secretly into your company, and are perverting the life of grace our God has bestowed on us into a life of wantonness; they even deny Jesus Christ, our one Lord and Master.” (Jude 4-5)

I say this as each day presents to us all a faith life different from any the Church has ever known. There seems to be a corruption of the faith occurring which is so complete, so hideous, that it is difficult to believe that it is accidental. Men, for reasons unknown, seem intent on creating a faith worthy of the hideous edifices we pray in, the ones which belong in a strip mall sandwiched somewhere between a rib joint and a second hand clothing store.

I traveled recently to Chicago and while attending mass picked up a copy of the diocesan newspaper Chicago Catholic. In it were articles common to all such papers; stories about local ministries, parish youth groups, travel, obituaries, etc. Two articles however dominated, one about the naming of a new head of the Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith, the other a piece written by the Cardinal Archbishop of Chicago welcoming, to Chicago, “with great joy”, the Parliament of the World's Religions, whose scheduled list of speakers are restricted it would appear to climate change activists, abortion activists or ideally both.

Now we may feel we understand our position as Catholics and our roles and responsibilities to both defend and promote our faith but after reading these articles I'm not so sure. We may see ourselves with the duty to promote faith, particularly the Catholic faith, over culture but in reality, according to the article, it is; “to bring about a more just, peaceful, and sustainable world”.

While reading these two articles I was struck by how similar the language was to elitist political claptrap. Meaningless drivel repeated over and over, without parameter or context. Flummery for a troubled world. Phrases like, diversity and vitality, faith lived in dialogue with culture, broader and deeper understanding, diversity, culture of encounter and dialogue, remarkably diverse world, and on and on. Somehow, and not by accident, the words diversity and dialogue appear 22 times! So what are we to make of this?

The mass, the ancient mass, in its' collects, lessons and gospel, was filled with admonitions to the faithful, laity and cleric alike, to preach the word of the Lord, to never turn a deaf ear to the truth. Our faith is a free assent to the whole truth that God has revealed, not dialogue and mutual listening. It is not fresh insights gleaned from interreligious dialogue, which seems to ignore St. Paul's warning that, “the time will surely come, when men will grow tired of sound doctrine, always itching to hear something fresh; so they will provide themselves with a continuous succession of new teachers, as the whim takes them.” (2 Tim. 4:4)

So the Church of the 3rd millennia approaches the coming Synod, bent on a spirit of false ecumenism, eager to learn what different religious traditions can teach us by the sharing of their “spiritual and ethical values”, with a new prefect for the Doctrine of the Faith charged with “speaking to real world concerns”, and not being “overly focused on sexual ethics”, after a World Youth Day which can only be described as “Weirdstock”. This is not likely to end well.

What to make of all this is beyond me. But I am worried. Too many seem “to transmute the grace of God into self indulgence” as St. Bede tells us, “who sin more permissively and freely the more they see they are less likely to be called to account by the strictures of the law for the crimes that they have committed”. Rather we should understand that the things which “Jesus commanded are not light matters” but that we “who believe, who are baptized in the Trinity, must do everything that has been taught.” (St. Jerome comm. on Mt. 28:20)

To know Him, to love Him, and to serve Him. That's why God made me. That's the rule. My guiding principle. At least until I am told that the Church doesn't teach this, and never did teach this and to forget that I ever believed the contrary.

Vivat Jesus

MEETING SACRIFICE

Since its inception in 2007, Folds of Honor has awarded nearly 44,000 scholarships totaling nearly $200 million to the spouses and children of America's fallen and disabled service members. And now, in our biggest announcement yet, we are expanding the Folds of Honor mission to incorporate America's first responders, including police, fire-fighters, EMTs and paramedics.

This move reflects our purpose to meet sacrifice with hope and show first responders and their families that they are not alone.

There are nearly 2 million first responders in the United States who respond to approximately 240 million calls made each year. Every time they respond to one of these calls, they are putting their life on the line. In 2021 alone, 669 law enforcement officers and 135 fire-fighters perished while on duty in the U.S.

Appreciation for U.S. military service members and First Responders is the single most unifying position held by Americans. On this we agree: those who protect our freedom and our families deserve our unwavering support.

Folds of Honor is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that provides educational scholarships to the spouses and children of military members who have fallen or been disabled while serving in the United States Armed Forces.

Our educational scholarships support private school tuition or tutoring in grades K-12, tuition for college, technical or trade school and post-graduate work, including a master's degree, doctorate, or professional program. Funds for a second bachelor's degree or trade/technical program certification are also available.

Among the students served, 41 percent are minorities. It is rated a four-star charity by Charity Navigator and Platinum on GuideStar. It was founded by Lt Col Dan Rooney, the only-ever F-16 fighter pilot (with three combat tours in Iraq) and PGA Professional. In A Word...

Our Brothers on the Frontlines in Maui

Dear Brother Knight,

The once beautiful green landscape of Maui is now darkened with ash and debris from the deadliest natural disaster in Hawaii's history. Tragically, more than 100 people have lost their lives and nearly 400 are still missing.

Yet in the face of this unimaginable loss, our brother Knights have not yielded in their service to those in need. Working around the clock, the 170 brother Knights in Maui's three councils continue to bring humanitarian and spiritual support to island families. And thanks to your continued contributions to the Knights of Columbus Disaster Relief Fund, we are making a real and immediate impact. Consider:

- Late last week, two cargo planes funded by the Knights of Columbus delivered food to the people of Maui.

- Knights are building temporary housing for displaced victims and families.

- Working with our partner Epic Ministry, we supported the development of a web portal through which families can request essential items, which Knights and other volunteers then deliver free of charge.

- In partnership with Msgr. Terry Watanabe of St. Anthony of Padua Parish in Wailuku and backed by a $100,000 donation from the Order's Disaster Relief Fund, Knights have helped build a temporary facility for Sacred Hearts Catholic School in Lahaina. The school reopened this week and students are back in the classroom.

- All told, over $200,000 has been donated to the Diocese of Honolulu to serve the local community.

Officials estimate that the rebuilding effort in Maui could take years. As in all our charitable relief efforts, the Knights will remain for the long haul. United in faith and charity, we'll continue to deliver on the mission set by our founder, Blessed Michael McGivney.

Thank you for all you have done to advance this work on behalf of our suffering brothers and sisters. Please continue to keep the people of Maui in your prayers. And if you are able, please DONATE NOW to the Knights of Columbus Disaster Relief Fund. 100% of your donation will support recovery efforts in Hawaii.

Please stand with us and donate today.

Thank you for your generosity!

Fraternally,

Optional Opening Prayers:

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls,
and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world.
O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy,
envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us.

Repeat three times:

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fountain of Mercy for us, I trust in You!

Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass
against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Amen

Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you;
blessed are you among women,
and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners
now and at the hour of our death.

Amen.

The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.

Amen.

For each of the five decades

On each "Our Father" bead of the rosary, pray:

Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

On each of the 10 "Hail Mary" beads, pray:

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

Concluding prayer (repeat three times)

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

Optional Closing Prayer

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.

Intentions...

Please remember to pray for those Brother Knights, family members and friends of Brother Knights for improved health or whatever distress they may be going through.

All on our lists...

The casualties from the war in Ukraine.
The casualties from the severe weather, mass shootings and other violence throughout the U.S. and the rest of the world.

Please reply to Grand Knight's email should you have any changes to the list of our departed Brothers and family members and the list of those in need of prayer for improved health.

God our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, You called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor.

Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church.

Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast.

We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will.

Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request).

Through Christ our Lord, Amen.
